

The United States of America

The Veterans Oath

I promise to uphold the values instilled in me by the United States Military. I will carry myself with honor and dignity out of respect for myself, my country and the memory of my comrades who died in service to the United States of America.

Date

Name